

British Values

The DfE requires schools to promote fundamental British values including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty, and mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs. Schools must also challenge opinions or behaviours in school that are contrary to fundamental British values. We actively promote these British values in a variety of ways including through RE, PSHE, assemblies and discreet lessons which relate specifically to one of these five values.

All staff and governors have received Prevent (Prevent is one of four work strands which make up the government's counter-terrorism strategy and all schools are required to "have due regard to the need to prevent people from being drawn into terrorism".) training to equip them with the knowledge and skills required to be vigilant in keeping our children safe.
